Director of Communications

The Director of Communications is responsible for communications between the School and its various constituencies, including parents, alumni, and the wider community. In this role, he or she:

• Supervises all print and web-based correspondence, and works to represent the school's mission and works.
• Raises awareness about the school and its leadership, faculty, and students by generating positive media coverage.
• Acts as the school's liaison to the broader community.
• Manages all public relations.

He or she reports to the Associate Head of School.

Resumes can be forwarded to David Harman, Headmaster (dharman@polyprep.org) or Vicki Buono, Mr. Harman's assistant (vbuono@polyprep.org).
