Poly Prep seeks applicants for the position of Middle School History Teacher. The ideal candidate will possess strong content knowledge of American history; a passion for teaching this age group; commitment to professional development and ongoing learning; enthusiasm for working with students, families, and colleagues; flexibility; and a sense of humor. We seek an individual who is committed to promoting diversity and inclusion, and whose personal integrity and collegiality will enrich a high-achieving, collaborative department.

PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITIES AND ACCOUNTABILITIES

Teaching:
- Four classes sections (7th grade United States History/American Studies)
- Eagerness to work with students on an individual basis, as needed
- Ability to keep accurate grades, effectively and supportively communicate with students and families, and provide written and oral feedback on student progress consistently throughout the school year

Additional Responsibilities:
- Assume role as an advisor for a group of students (approximately 7)
- Advise a club or activity and supervise periodic study hall
- Demonstrate energetic commitment to professional development
- Attend and contribute to meetings during and after the school day, including, but not limited to, departmental, committee, divisional, and grade-level meetings
- Accompany students on occasional curricular trips
- Attend community events throughout the school year

QUALIFICATIONS

Education: Bachelor's degree in history or related disciplines.

Experience: Two years of teaching experience in middle school

Poly Prep strives to be an equitable, just, and diverse community, one proud of and deeply committed to empowering students to discover who they are and what they want to be. In keeping with the country day school philosophy, we seek community members who will share a passion for learning in and out of the classroom. Every educator at Poly Prep aspires to uphold our mission “to support and inspire the next diverse generation of leaders and global citizens to act with intelligence, imagination and—above all—character.”
We offer a great environment, with a full benefits package (medical, dental, vision, life insurance, a generous match on our 403(b) retirement plan, long-term disability, flexible spending account, pre-tax commute benefit, and free lunch).

How to Apply: Interested applicants should send a cover letter and current resume detailing their interest in the position and specific evidence of their qualifications to Margaret Moslander, Chair of History Department at hiring-history@polyprep.org
